Group Offers Free Pickup Of Iceboxes

Free pickup of unused refrigerators, ice boxes or freezers, the cause of death of several children in the Southland recently, is being offered by the State Rubbish Collectors Assn.

Torrance residents may make use of the service by telephoning the police dept. or the association office at Raymond 3-5312. The association will pick up the ice boxes and destroy them.

William Ohanesian, association president, said the association is offering the free service because "as active and responsible citizens of the Los Angeles community our members have become extremely concerned with the increasing frequency of children's deaths caused by unused ice boxes, refrigerators and freezers."

"We feel that something concrete and effective should be done about it immediately," Ohanesian said. "We are appalled at the needless tragedy and heartbreak caused by these insidious death traps," he added.

Polynesian Features New Dance Group

In line with its policy of showcasing the finest South Seas entertainment, The Polynesian Restaurant is currently presenting Tahiti's most outstanding singer-dancer, Emma Terangi.

The lovely interpreter of ancient and sensual Tahitian music just opened a limited engagement at the tropical dining establishment, having just arrived here from Tapeete, Tahiti.

Emma Terangi stars in two exciting shows nightly, 10 p.m. and 12 midnight, accompanied by the rhythmic music of Harry Baty and his "Polynesianians." Mlle. Terangi also sings during the cocktail hours, beginning at 5:30 p.m., in the "Samoan Hut."
